Grow in Concert with Nature: Sustaining East Asia's Water Resources Management Through Green Water Defense

By Xiaokai Li, Graeme Turner, Liping Jiang

World Bank Publications. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Grow in Concert with Nature: Sustaining East Asia's Water Resources Management Through Green Water Defense, Xiaokai Li, Graeme Turner, Liping Jiang, Water scarcity is increasingly becoming a threat to water security in different countries or areas of East Asia, driven by water over-withdrawal and pollution, and aggravated by climate change and variability. The 'Green Water Defense in East Asia' study, as part of the driver for green growth in the water sector of East Asia region, seeks to find a sustainable solution to this challenge. The concept of Green Water Defense (GWD) is developed building on such principles as 'live and build with nature', 'green adaptation', 'produce more with less' and 'low impact development', etc. It is defined by the authors as 'Green Water Defense (GWD) is an adaptive management philosophy and approach which seeks to spatially integrate natural forces and artificial interventions, and to balance incentive-based and supply-driven measures, with minimum footprints and externalities in providing water services and managing related climate risk.' This report provides a brief account of the water resources and climate trend in the region, puts forward a conceptual framework of GWD based on a model...

A very amazing publication with perfect and lucid information. We have read through and that i am certain that i will planning to study once more yet again in the future. You will not really feel monotony at anytime of the time (that's what catalogues are for about should you question me).

It becomes an awesome publication that I actually have actually read. It really is writter in simple terms and not difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
