We have all used forms of manipulation in our lifetime. For example, a child manipulating a parent by crying incessantly when that parent balks at the idea of buying them the latest toy, crying to the point where that parent just eventually wears down and gives in or altering our appearance with the intention of getting a specific reaction or getting others to perceive us in a certain way. We all have engaged in the art of manipulation. Manipulating others is a great way to get what you want. It can be used in a positive sense or in negative one and that choice rests solely on the individual who is engaging in the manipulation. There are many techniques that are used to manipulate others and in his book entitled The Art of Manipulation author and serial entrepreneur Omar Johnson examines the secrets of how to use manipulation to get anybody to do what you want. You will also learn how to determine if someone is trying to manipulate you. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
