Externals implying, you see, Internals less saintly than human Pray speak, for between you and me Youre not a bad judge of woman! A jest--buta jest! . . . Very true: Tis hardly becoming to jest, And that saint upstairs at rest---Her soul may be listening, too! Well may your visage turn yellow--I was always a brute of a fellow! To think how I doubted and doubted, Suspected, grumbled at, flouted That golden-haired angel--and solely Because she was zealous and holy! Noon and night and mor n She devoted herself to piety; Not that she seemed to scorn Or dislike her husbands society; But the claims of her soul superseded All that I asked for or needed, And her thoughts were afar away From the level of sinful clay, And she trembled if earthly matters Interfered with her aces and paters. Poor...
