This lovely volume contains 9 essays by some of the best garden writers in the English language. They describe the gardens of reality and of their dreams. Award-winning illustrator Ferris Cook , who compiled these essays, includes reproductions of some of her exquisite oil paintings to accompany the pieces, some in the Art Nouveau style. Vita Sackville-West muses on her desire for a paving stone garden ; Allen Lacy remenices on the remarkable garden of Grace Root ; Russell Page , a world-renowned landscape architect who was too busy designing others' gardens to have one of his own, writes what his ideal garden would be if he had the time to create one for himself ; Louise Beebe Wilder reminisces about a stunning white garden in Wales. Ferris Cook was inspired by the cover designs of early 20th century garden books; she includes info on her illustrations and the sources for them, which were the talented , mostly unknown , artists, and the editions in which she found their work. This book is : " Garden Dreams " illustrated and edited by Ferris Cook ; Hard cover book , still sealed in publisher's shrink wrap; published by Stewart , Tabori & Chang ; without dj as...
