They are, as sure as Im alive, A casting from some neighbouring hive And will delicious honey make, They are a prize, and no mistake. Well, well, said Bob, you may be right, Though what I know of bees is slight, And such as these I never saw; They may be wild, for ought we know. Pooh, pooh, said John, wild bees indeed! Say rather, of an improved breed; Theyre ours, and therefore well contrive To get them safely in a hive. Howgill is near, and Im sure We there can what we want procure, And if you here awhile will stay, E Ill go, and not be long away. So saying, on his errand bent, lake a roused hare, away he went. Nor did Bob long alone remain, John, sweating, soon came back again With a new straw hive snug and nice, And...
