By Mr. Haim Kadman

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 184 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. An irretrievable step is an espionage thriller; its plot relates the adventures of Doron Seri an Israeli junior IDF officer who is persuaded to join the Mossad, his countrys intelligence service against his will, through sophisticated tactics that leaves him no other choice, but to volunteer to serve his country as a secret agent in an enemy state. He is signed on a contract of seven years, and after two preparative years in Israel he is sent to Italy under a new identity, where he meets Bianca Conti, marries her and takes her with him to Egypt; where they serve as a team. The plots background is the nationalization of the Suez Canal during the late fifties of the previous century, and the invasion of the Suez Canal zone by the British and French. The short paragraph of my book below, endows the reader a glimpse of the plot: On his way to town he remembered with sudden alarm that he had to call them and fix the place and time, but he forgot all about it due...
