First, Sherlock is summoned into the principal s office to help investigate a caper in the cafeteria. There s enough missing milk money for the school to buy its own cow. At the same time he s trying to sniff out insurance malfeasance as thousands of dollars of premium cigars go up in smoke. And if those aren t enough to keep him busy, there s a cancerous, crime going down in Chicago s Chinatown that s completely confusing. To complicate matters in all of the above, there s gambling, illegal aliens, Tiffany testing for admission to Harvard, Kelly and Care going undercover as students at their school, a Peking duck, and Herman, the heavyweight hacker, about to say I do. Three cases, all of which are based on recent, true-life crimes, have Sherlock up to his ears in milk, smoke, cancer cures, and duties as the best man. What s a reluctant detective to do?.
