

Ore: An Erik Portland Story (Paperback)

By Geoff Spedding

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Ore is the third novel by Geoff Spedding set in Ulf, a little former gold-mining and timber-milling town in the hill country of Victoria, Australia. The main character of all three books is Erik Portland, a retired church pastor who ministers in an independent congregation in Ulf. In the first book, Ulf he becomes involved in, and solves, the mystery of a teenage girl who had been missing for fifteen years. In Ash, the second novel, he solves the mystery surrounding the violent death of a young fire fighter during a wild fire which roars through the village. In Ore, Erik Portland is fishing in his favourite mountain stream when he makes a discovery which leads him on a hunt for gold in the high country above the village of Ulf. A new member of Erik's family is a small dog which becomes his companion as he searches the hills. Burglary, domestic violence, death threats and the re-emergence of a vengeful villain interrupt his seeking the golden treasure and there are times when his life is in jeopardy. Many of the...
