Communities of Resistance and Solidarity (Paperback)

By Sharon D Welch

Wipf Stock Publishers, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. How many times have we asked what would be an appropriate North American equivalent to the base communities and the liberation theology of Latin America? Now in Sharon Welch s fluent but solid book we have an answer. Drawing on a wide variety of philosophical and theological sources and viewing the whole from a critical feminist perspective, Welch suggests how subjugated forms of knowledge can be recuperated as human communities learn to support each other in resisting our socio-cultural death wish. A passionate and poetic book, which strikes a new chord in theology both in style and in substance. --Harvey Cox, author of Religion in the Secular City In this book Sharon Welch contributes to a vital conversation, namely, in what sense feminist liberation theologians (for that matter, all honest theologians) must acknowledge both the relativist insights of their truth-claims and the ethically normative value of their work. This is a critical dialectic and Welch s theology helps sharpen it. --Carter Heyward, Professor of Theology, Episcopal Divinity School Sharon Welch offers here not simply a feminist theology of liberation but a new way of doing theology as...
