Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What would you do if you stepped into another reality and visited a place that shouldn't exist? While on a group outing, Lou catches a glimpse through the trees of the cabin by the lake. The experience triggers a sense of knowing, a sense of déjà vu. The cabin was as familiar to her as her face in a mirror. She has been there many times before, but only in her mind. This feeling sends her back to the cabin to investigate. What she encounters there stretches her faith and sends her on a spiritual journey. The cabin by the lake nestled in the pine trees is a physical manifestation of a place that should not exist. It's a place that she thought only existed in her mind, because she created it, she was the architect. The person who opens the door is so familiar. He is someone she has spent a lot of time with, but only in her mind. Like the cabin, he is someone that she thought only existed in her mind, in her imagination, in books. She never dreamed she would meet him in real life. He is exactly who she needs to talk to, to continue her spiritual journey. A journey that will change her perception of reality. A journey that will change her forever!.
