Excerpt from The American Elevator and Grain Trade, Vol. 10: December 15, 1891 It may seem incredible that Brockman, the St. Louis commission man, should have advanced before discovering the alleged fraud, but he says it was all done within a period of two or three weeks. The magnitude of the business may be inferred from the fact that there were eighty-three cars of grain on track at Council Bluffs in one day recently. The Union Elevator at that point seems to have been the key to the scheme attributed to the Browns, and a very convenient one it was. The Brown Bros. Have had a through rate, with the privilege of stopping the grain at the Union Elevator to be cleaned and then reshipped. Brockman charges that in some cases the Browns had grain shipped to the Union. Elevator for Brown Bros. Of St. Louis, in care of Brown Bros., Omaha. On the bills of lading the Browns drew on the St. Louis man and got their cash. After the grain had been cleaned at the elevator it was reshipped over one...
