Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 90: October 11, 1928 Standley Hill in the afternoon, and at John Benbow s, Hill Farm, in the evening. The parish church that stood in the neighbourhood Of Brother Benbow s, presided over by the rector Of the parish, was attended during the day by only fifteen persons, while I had a large congregation, esti mated to number a thousand, attend my meetings through the day and evening. When I arose to speak at Brother Benbow s house, a man entered the door and informed me that he was a constable, and had been sent by the rector Of the parish with a warrant to arrest me. I asked him: for what crime? He said For preaching to the people. I told him that I, as well as the rector, had a license for preaching the Gospel to the people, and that if he would take a chair I would wait upon him after meeting. He took my chair and sat beside me. For an hour and a quarter I preached the first principles Of...

Undoubtedly, this is the best function by any writer. This really is for those who statte there was not a really worth reading. Its been written in an exceptionally basic way which is merely right after i finished reading through this book by which really transformed me, change the way i really believe.
