Whenever we speak, our words shape our reality and impact the way we live. So, when we make a conscious effort to speak words of faith, love, and encouragement into our relationships, it infuses each one with new life, strength, passion, security, and purpose. Having strong relationships with others is vital to our existence. In fact, God never intended for us to live isolated lives; He created us to be relational beings so that we may connect to Him and to others. Whether it s a family member, friend, coworker, or fellow brother or sister in Christ, each relationship serves a unique purpose and it helps to shape us into the men and women God created us to be. This book provides 13 powerful faith confessions and daily activities that will release the power of God s Word in your life so you can enjoy rich and fulfilling relationships with others. You will explore several types of relationships - including relating to God, family, your spouse, children, friends, and even your enemies - to gain a deeper understanding of God s purpose for each connection. As you declare one faith confession each day for a week, you will gain a greater appreciation for your relationships and the daily activities will help you rediscover the value people add to your life.
