Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt: .of minds that come out like travellers who climb to the top of every high tower in their journey, because they will not come home without being able to say they have done it. Apparently, too many of our students go through their course for no better reason than to say they have done it. There are grand and noble exceptions, but these are generally among those who do not care to SAY anything about it. The great majority, however, come forth in the mental condition of the man, who laboriously climbs step by step of the tower, takes his bird s-eye view of the field of learning, accepts the impressions made upon his mind by the vast picture and the vast mixture, and comes down to his own level again with no more real knowledge of that at which he has glanced than has the traveller who has taken a glimpse from the heights which he climbed, because the guide-book said this was the thing to do. In every walk of life, among statesmen, men of...
