Title: A new discourse of trade : wherein is recommended several weighty points relating to companies of merchants : the act of navigation, naturalization of strangers, and our woolen manufactures, the ballance of trade and the nature of plantations, and their consequences in relation to the kingdom, are seriously discussed, methods for the employment and maintenance of the poor are proposed, the reduction of interest of money to 4 l. per centum is recommended, and some proposals for erecting a court of merchants for determining controversies relating to maritime affairs and for a law for transferrance of bills of debts are humbly offered. Author: Child, Josiah, Sir Publisher: Gale, Sabin Americana Description: Based on Joseph Sabins famed bibliography, Bibliotheca Americana, Sabin Americana, 1500--1926 contains a collection of books, pamphlets, serials and other works about the Americas, from the time of their discovery to the early 1900s. Sabin Americana is rich in original accounts of discovery and exploration, pioneering and westward expansion, the U. S. Civil War and other military actions, Native Americans, slavery and abolition, religious history and more. Sabin Americana offers an up-close perspective on life in the western hemisphere, encompassing the arrival of the Europeans on the shores of North America in the late 15th century to the first decades of the 20th century. Covering a span of over 400 years in North, Central and South America as well as the Caribbean, this collection highlights the society, politics, religious beliefs, culture, contemporary opinions and momentous events of the time. It provides access to documents from an assortment of genres, sermons, political tracts, newspapers, books, pamphlets, maps, legislation, literature and more. Now for the first time, these high-quality...
