During that period Mrs. Garfield often spoke to James about his future, and he agreed with his mother, that if God saved his life on that night, He must have saved him for something. Then she brought her son under the influence of the teacher of their school, who was preparing to be a minister, and he soon showed James that the difference between a scholar and a sailor is the difference between somebody and nobody. James decided to continue his education. That was the turning-point in his life. His mother knew that, having once said, I will go to school, he would keep his word, and from that time she was satisfied. CHAPTER XI. STRIKING OUT A NEW LINE. James decides to attend a College This item ships from La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
