Outside the back window Alice can see the outlines of the garden, some of the furrows visible under the snow, stretching away in long thin rows. She can t imagine doing the garden without her dad. It s his thing; she s always thought of herself as his assistant at best. She can t imagine doing anything without her dad and she starts to feel like she can t breathe. And then she looks at him. Just looks at him as he watches the fire with muffin crumbs on his lap. I ll write to you. I know, sweetheart. Every day. From Alice Bliss When Alice Bliss learns that her father, Matt, is being deployed to Iraq, she s heartbroken. Alice idolizes her father, loves working beside him in their garden, accompanying him on the occasional roofing job, playing baseball. When he ships out, Alice is faced with finding a way to fill the emptiness he has left behind. Matt will miss seeing his daughter blossom from a tomboy into a full-blown teenager. Alice will learn to drive, join the track...
