Excerpt from Twenty Second Report of the Board of Directors and Officers of the California Institution for the Education of the Deaf and Dumb, and the Blind: For the Twenty-Four Months Ending June 30, 1896 Sir: The Board of Directors of the California Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, and the Blind, herewith submit their report for the two years ending June 30, 1896. The total number of pupils under instruction in all departments was 257. The total number in attendance at this date is 220. The buildings are now ample for the accommodation of pupils, teachers, and attendants, with one exception. A small hospital structure is very much needed for the isolation and treatment of contagious diseases. Pupils who are drawn from all parts of the State frequently bring with them a tendency to such local diseases as prevail in the vicinity of their homes. It is impossible to secure, in crowded dormitories, such isolation from infectious diseases as the most prudent sanitary precautions would suggest. On two or more occasions such diseases have assumed an epidemic character. Without facilities for hospital isolation, there is always more or less danger that an epidemic might suspend the regular work of the school for the greater part of a term.
