15 Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 232 x 174 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Who doesn't want to spend more time playing?! Tricks and Games to Teach Your Dog is the how-to book for dog owners looking to improve their fun factor in their dogs eyes. Author Sophie Collins, assisted by Suellen Dainty, promise that any owner of a dog no matter what age, breed, activity level, size or personality can transform his pooch into an accomplished performer in brief daily five-minute training sessions. In all, the book offers 80 tricks and games, from the tried-and-true rainy-day tricks like roll over and play dead to out-of-the-box surprises like lion tamer and the commando crawl. Fully illustrated with color photographs and drawings, Tricks and Games to Teach Your Dog serves as a game plan for busy owners who wish to spend more quality time with their dogs, engaging them in educational games to improve their obedience skills while deepening the dogs bonds with their owners. Readers can teach their dogs helpful household tasks, such as the laundry service, fetch my keys and answer the door, as well as games that expand their repertory of manners, such as say please, learning a stop signal, and dinner time. The authors emphasize the importance of safety in teaching tricks and games and caution owners to only work with safe objects when teaching fetching or finding games. The book is filled with practical training tips that owners can use throughout their dogs lives. Once an owner is confident and aware of his own technique, he will be better prepared to give the dog specific direction and not confuse the dog by giving false cues or misusing body language, tone of voice or hand signals. The level of difficulty in the lessons...
