The State was prostrate so far.as its credit was concerned. There was no railroad through Canada. There was no railroad west of Kalamazoo. The Michigan Central was rebuilt by its new owners and extended to Chicago. Then the Qreat Westein Railroad was built in Canada, and afterward other lines were constructed which gave the system direct connections with most parts of the State. When the Michigan Central negotiations were finished, Mr. Joy took an active part in the organization of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company. He went over the route from Chicago to Burlington and Quincy, and, after becoming well acquainted with the country and its resources, he had little difficulty in financing the project. Then he became prominently connected with the extension of the road to Fort Kearney, Neb., and before long was in a commanding position among the railway operators of the country. He was elected President of the Michigan Central Railroad Company in 1865, and was largely instrumental in the construction of a number of lines, most of which ultimately passed into the control of the company of which he was the head. One of his most interesting enterprises was the first Detroit River tunnel, which was partly built, and another was the first canal at Sault Ste. Marie, which was turned...
