Excerpt: . . . ordinary work in connection with local centres, but, on the contrary, to lectures directly organized and superintended by officials of the Central Board at Queen Margaret College, Glasgow. And for this result, in turn, thanks are to be given to the Glasgow University Court which has, at the request of the Board, granted the use of rooms in College free of charge. Should the suggestions to be made later with respect to the future of the University Extension Scheme ever take practical shape, it will become necessary for the Central Board to engage a paid secretary. In those circumstances it is to be hoped that the University Court may be able still further to exercise generosity and guarantee the Board an annual grant, say up to 100, for at least five years, or until such time as the reconstructed scheme has become quite self-supporting...
