Reviews

I just started off reading this article publication. It is definitely simplistic but surprises in the 50 percent of your ebook. You are going to like how the author create this publication.

They must both be highly interesting. I asked Mr. Clifford for seeds for my garden, but he has sent me ores, fossils, and dissertations. Pray recommend me to your friend when you have an opportunity. I have built a stove, which I wish to furnish in the spring. The anatomical theatre is also finished, and there have been many dissections in it this winter. If you fix your residence in Sweden, pray collect some of your Mosses, and north-country plants. You shall have Lichens, Mosses, and Hercynian plants, if you please, in return. Pray give my compliments to my old friend Rosen, though I am not personally known to him. He has now attained a very advantageous appointment. I was particularly acquainted with a surgeon named Ribbius, the son of your king s physician. If I have an opportunity, I will send something to our Society. Farewell! and do not deprive me of your regard. LINN/EUS TO HALLER. Leyden, Jan. 3, 1738. I shall remain here till the 3d of February. If, meanwhile, your work is sent me, I will, if you please, take care to have the different types appointed for the classes, generic and specific names, and synonyms. If I can be of use to you in any other way, I am entirely at your service. Though the Hortus Cliffortianus has long been printed, it is not yet published, owing to the tardiness of...
