Younglove, C. H. CLXXVIII. HEATING AND VENTILATING OF CARS. BY E. R. SWAN. (Non-member of the Society, presented by request.) The heating and ventilating of cars has received but little attention from those versed in the science of ventilation. What little has been done appears to have been by persons of no experience or knowledge of the principles that must be applied in order to secure it. Heating and ventilating has not been considered as a science of itself, and yet it is one of the most difficult problems in engineering. Dr. Dudley, Chemist, who designed the system of ventilating used on the Pennsylvania Railway, in writing upon the subject, says, in part: It seems not improbable that if a vote...
