PARALLEL LIVES: AN ILLUSTRATED LATIN COURSE FOR ALL. BOOK 1. (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Klavisol Linguistica, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Parallel Lives is intended to be a complete Latin course leading learners up to the equivalent of a Latin GCSE (UK) level. The textbooks are concise and the workbooks unique in Latin teaching as they are largely modelled on MFL acquisition research and practices. The workbooks are an integral part of the course as the activities in them interlace intricately with those in the textbooks and enhance the learning process. The illustrations throughout have been done professionally and are intended to illustrate the stories, to promote discovery and discussion and to encourage creativity and imagination. A designated website (provides extra support for teacher and learner alike. Audio versions of all dialogues are available for free download. The emphasis of Book I lies in two areas: 1. Developing a love for the Roman World and an understanding of the ways it underpins the foundations of Western civilisation. This is done by following the adventures of young Cicero (Marcus), his best friend Titus and his sister Pomponia. Situations and themes include: at school, at home, life in town and in the countryside, Roman toys, pets, names, inscriptions, education, slavery, the Graeco-Roman Pantheon, the City of Rome, gladiators and gladiatrices, the stories of Aeneas and Odysseus etc. The title Parallel Lives is suggestive of the perspective the themes are viewed from: looking for similarities and differences between characters, their lives and realities. The topics lead naturally towards parallels with the realities of the modern world (such as equality and cultural differences and tolerance). 2. Language focus: most pages contain Language Focus rubrics which have been kept as free of formalised grammar as possible, to allow each teacher to introduce the grammatical units in...
