Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Biennial Report of the North Carolina State Board of Public Welfare: July 1, 1966-June 30, 1968 In a further effort to explode some of the myths about poverty and its relief, a program of visitation to clients, Come Visit with Us, is being instituted in the counties. Through this program community leaders are invited to accompany county welfare department caseworkers on their visits to recipients and then to participate, with other visitors, in a discussion of what they have seen, to ask questions, and to make suggestions. During this time the State Board authorized two significant studies to be used as a basis for action in the two areas concerned. The first was a study by the Research Triangle Institute Of the actual operating costs in this state Of homes for the aged and nursing homes in order to have a more accurate base for arriving at payments for recipients in these homes. This was the first such in-depth study of these costs in the country. The second study, also done by the Research Triangle Institute, was an effort to locate...
