

Remembering the Journey: The History of the Home Science Programme at the University of Ghana

By Charlotte Anokwa

Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 282 x 218 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book chronicles the establishment of Ghana s first university degree program in home science. It brings to life the challenges and opportunities experienced through the evolution of a British model of domestic science to a more North American-oriented model of the discipline and profession of home economics. The result is a university degree rooted in the culture and family systems of Ghana. Set within the larger context of women s education in pre and post-independence Ghana, the book highlights the importance of the interface between the discipline and national development. The challenges of establishing such a program within a traditional university structure are illustrated, as well as the struggle to base the program in research on the needs of Ghanaian families. The book shines a light on the leadership styles and persistence of the first four department heads whose individual and cumulative achievements changed the course of home science/home economics in the country. The book covers the department s history from its beginnings in the late 1960s and the difficulties in designing appropriate curricula and...
