Each paragraph of the New York building zone resolution is followed by an explanatory note prepared by the expert to the Commission on Building Districts and Restrictions. Diagrams illustrate height and area restrictions. Maps show height and area districting of the Borough of Manhattan. - The American Economic Review, Volume 8 [1918] Mr. Ford has done an excellent piece of work in preparing an edition of the now widely discussed New York City building zone resolution, restricting the heights and use of buildings and prescribing the minimum sizes of their yards and courts. While his explanatory notes are designed to be of special service to owners, builders and architects, they will be helpful to all students of this problem. Mr. Ford expresses only his own personal interpretation of the law, but as he was the consultant of the commission these views will be of great value. - National Civic Review, Volume 6 [1917].
