Violet Robinson grew up straddling the world of her father, a U.S. Senator, and her mother, who was raised Amish. Then Violet gets the chance to live in an Amish house without modern amenities. Violet's father hopes this will make her realize how hard an Amish life is, but the opposite happens. Especially when Violet finds herself falling for Luke. A world apart. Although buggy shop owner Luke King was raised Amish, he hasn't yet been baptized into the church. He's always felt something waited out there for him. When he meets Violet, he knows why God set him on this path. Had he already been baptized, he'd be shunned for courting the non-Amish Violet. United by love. While Violet's learning the realities of living in the Amish world, Luke indulges in the opportunity to live in the English world, risking his family's wrath. Violet fears Luke won't be able to leave his faith. But can she live in the stricter and simpler Amish world? As the feelings between Violet and Luke grow deeper, can they overcome their dissimilar lifestyles or will their differences pull them apart? But when violence from Violet's past threatens, they discover that faith succeeds where all else fails, and two worlds may be joined by two loving hearts.
