Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Eighteenth Biennial Report of the State Board of Fish Commissioners of the State of California: For the Years 1903-1904 To Hon. George C. Pardee, Governor of the State of California: Sir: In accordance with law, the State Board of Fish Commissioners has the honor to submit for your consideration its Eighteenth Biennial Report, being a record of its work and expenditures from September 1, 1902, to September 1, 1904. We submit, also, the recommendations which our experience in carrying on this important work has suggested, as tending, in our judgment, to the betterment of both the fish and the game interests. Since the Seventeenth Biennial Report was submitted, the personnel of this Board has undergone one change. H. W. Keller tendered his resignation on April 24, 1903. On May 6, 1903, W. W. Van Arsdale was elected President of the Board, vice H. W. Keller, resigned. Regular meetings of the Board have been held during the first of every month, and at such other times as became necessary to the welfare of our work. Complete minutes of all the meetings are on file in our office, rooms 508 and 509, Mills Building, San Francisco. Duplicate bills of every item drawn against the appropriations over which we have control are also on file, and records of the same are on our minute and account books. On November 29, 1903, the California Fish Commission and all the people interested in the restoration and preservation of the salmon industry of the Pacific Coast sustained an irreparable loss by the death of Mr. Cloudsley Rutter. Mr. Rutter had been stationed on this coast by the United States Fish Commission...
