The store owner would then have eggs, cream, and butter to sell to the people living in the community who did not farm. The system worked; everyone's needs were met and they were happy. That's not the way it is done today, though, is it? Today's farmers are either: A-large-scale producers who grow and sell commercially for a large corporation such as Del Monte(r), Tyson(r) or one of the other major players in the industry. These farmers depend on government policies and programs...
