Camilla : the Real Woman (Paperback)

By Rebecca Tyrrel

Short Books Ltd, United Kingdom, 2005. Paperback. Condition: New. New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Rebecca Tyrrel paints a vivid picture of the life of Camilla Parker Bowles - jolly, horsey, laid-back Camilla, loyal friend, loving mother, whose open county marriage was none of anyone's business until it emerged that the other man in it was the heir to the throne. To her critics, Camilla will always be a manipulative marriage breaker, the woman who took on the People's Princess and won. But, if nothing else, she is constant - a dignified consort, who has endured years of public vilification and never answered back. With the help of friends and county contacts, royal reporters and palace insiders, Tyrrel goes behind the scenes of an extraordinary love story - a story of romance and tragedy, which has rocked the monarchy to its foundations and yet doggedly prevailed. Welcome to Camilla's world.
