Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Illusions and Disillusions, Touching Upon Topics in Every Day Life The essays in this book have been selected from my writings which have appeared daily in the Oklahoman during the past two years. For the most part, I have chosen the essays which have brought me the widest response from my readers, those that have impelled readers to say to me, I have had the very same thoughts, though I did not put them into so many words. In a single sentence we have the function of the writer-to put other persons ideas, thoughts and aspirations into definite, readable form. Writers have no monopoly on thoughts and ideas-which are the common property of mankind. Many of the most vital thoughts in this volume have come to me from others, who gave them out, consciously or unconsciously. Thoughts and ideas come from everywhere. Really, we live in a surging sea of thought. In this, my first volume, I have discussed a good many subjects which perplex men and women who are much wiser than myself. My excuse for daring to analyze them is that I lay no claim to special knowledge, nor do I boast of any ability to offer the final solution. I merely try to talk things over, rather intimately with my readers, and to present my ideas in a simple, straightforward and common-sense way. Sometimes, my readers ask me how it is that I can find so much to write about, how it is that, barring emergencies, I can write 365 days in the year.
