I cannot say anything to increase the lustre of his fame, or that will enshrine him more sacredly in your affections. Then why attempt a eulogy on the life and character of Abraham Lincoln? To satisfy our own grief and gratitude, and to pay a just tribute to manly, noble worth. As a motto for this address, I have chosen the anguish-riven cry of Israel when they heard the chief whose prudence, fortitude and valor had crushed their foes and saved their country, lay in his own triumph and blood: All the people of Israel greatly bewailed him. They wept many days, and said, why is that great man dead who saved the people of Israel? The first question we propose for calm discussion is - Is the name of Abraham Lincoln worthy of being enrolled upon the catalogue of great men? We affirm it is, and might argue that. The position he occupied entitles him to this honor. You need not remind us that merit, not position makes a man great. We know it, and reply, no man without merit could, under the circumstances, rise to that position. Let the man who denies this solve for us this problem: A bog raised in a floorless log cabin of the West till he was twenty-one years old, working his way to eminence in the legal profession, to honor in Congressional halls, and finally elected President of the United States; elected a second...
