Now, however, Bancroft has got a crisis on his hands; a problem which could halt his relentless march to Downing Street and the ultimate job. More than ever, he needs his mysterious fixer to prove his power and influence. Despite the reservations of those closest to Ray, he grasps eagerly at the opportunity to, once again, hunt down his old nemesis and in the process, bury his ghosts before he retires into obscurity. Can the old war horse, Bartholomew, shake off his paralysis and lead this most...
