

Researching Everyday Childhoods: Time, Technology and Documentation in a Digital Age (Paperback)

By Rachel Thomson, Liam Berriman, Sara Bragg

Bloomsbury Publishing PLC, United Kingdom, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. How can we know about children s everyday lives in a digitally saturated world? What is it like to grow up in and through new media? What happens between the ages of 7 and 15 and does it make sense to think of maturation as mediated? These questions are explored in this innovative book, which synthesizes empirical documentation of children s everyday lives with discussions of key theoretical and methodological concepts to provide a unique guide to researching childhood and youth. Researching Everyday Childhoods begins by asking what recent `post-empirical and `post-digital frameworks can offer researchers of children and young people s lives, particularly in researching and theorising how the digital remakes childhood and youth. The key ideas of time, technology and documentation are then introduced and are woven throughout the book s chapters. Research-led, the book is informed by two state of the art empirical studies - `Face 2 Face and `Curating Childhoods - and links to a dynamic multimedia archive generated by the studies.
