THE DENTAL REGISTER, VOL. 49 (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Dental Register is a monthly journal of dentistry devoted to covering the latest information in dental practice, procedures, and administration, written for individuals interested in the profession. Edited by J. Taft, D.D.S. and with associate editors Will H. Whitslar, D.D.S. and N. S. Hoff, D.D.S., this publication was printed by the Ohio Dental Depot. A compendium of information, this volume boasts a wide range of topics to educate and intrigue even the most versed dentists. This publication contains over one hundred articles for the reader s enjoyment on topics that span a great array of dental interests including dental groups and associations; dental law; dental practices including separators, gold as a filling material and hygiene tips; and highlighting various dental practices around the world, with essays on dentistry in Brazil, quackery in China, and dental law in Holland. A special section of the register examines a variety of issues pertaining to the study of dentistry and dental schools including a detailed comparison of different programs at a variety of dental colleges across the United States. Lastly, this volume provides space for the achievements of dental professionals including awards, honorary degrees, and grants awarded, as well as obituaries for several important individuals in the field of dentistry that have passed away in the previous year. The Dental Register is a great resource for readers interested in dentistry and all areas of the dental profession. This book provides more information in one place than many other books on dentistry combined. This text is an entertaining and an educational read for individuals intrigued by dentistry, and is even approachable for readers with only a basic knowledge on the...
