By Ako Mak

Balboa Press Australia, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Almost two years have passed since Aiko Foster resigned from her fast-paced career in Tokyo and migrated to Melbourne with her Australian husband, Rupert, to start a family. When her thirty ninth birthday comes and goes, Aiko obsesses about getting pregnant as she watches her temperature rise and fall like a day trader reading stock prices. While trying hard, Aiko fears her opportunities to have a baby may be running out. After the couple is diagnosed with infertility, they start a roller coaster emotional journey through several in vitro fertilization treatments while Aiko struggles with her age, cultural differences, and in-law troubles. When Aiko finally becomes pregnant, she is beyond thrilled. But her dream quickly transforms into a nightmare. Nevertheless, Aiko s journey to build a family continues in unexpected and mystic ways. In this poignant novel, an ex-career woman embarks on a cross-cultural quest for a baby where she comes to realize that there is something to life beyond this physical world.
