What happens when the only girl you've ever lusted comes crashing back into the picture? Nothing. Don't construe my lack of interest the wrong way. The last time I saw Ava, she was no doubt attractive. Although she's always been a little nerdy, and her head never left the inside of a book during her entire schooling experience, she could garner the attention of any hot-blooded male she feigned an interest in - myself included. Just one flash of her killer smile and I wanted to drop to my knees and kiss her f*cking feet. But a lot has changed since Ava left town six years ago with a flood of tears streaming down her face. Circumstances change. People change. I've changed. I'm no longer a teenage boy who can't control his cock around a beautiful girl. I am a grown man. A man that has done two tours in Afghanistan. A man that has no troubles controlling his cock. A man that can still remember the sweet taste of her lips. What the f*ck? I'm screwed. From the Author that brought you the Enigma series comes the next installment. An emotional story about being reacquainted with your high school crush. Does time really alter your interests? Or is using your age just an excuse to downplay real love? Let's find out - it's time to dive beneath the sheets One Small Decision: One Epic Result. Five years ago, I made a mistake. If I'd known my hasty decision was going to have the consequences it did, I would have evaluated it with more diligence. I would have taken the time...
