

Hippolyta s Belt: A Mystery of Galactic Proportions (Paperback)

By Valery Milgrom

LI Publishing, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Leonid Gurevich (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It is the future. Humankind now colonizes planets across the large sector of the Milky Way, conducting a vast range of scientific and industrial endeavors. Generally it is peaceful, and one even has a selection of dreams from which to choose. Life, however, isn t without risk. For safety s sake, virtually everything is recorded, and unaccompanied travel in any outpost environment is definitely not recommended. Now comes news of the death of the Seignora star and the subsequent evaporation of its four inhabited planets. The Seignora Holocaust is tragic news throughout the galaxy, and people everywhere mourn the loss of life Meanwhile, on a small planet tucked away in a neighboring system, a mining operation continues. Hippolyta is a desolate place with a soupy, grainy atmosphere that shuts out light, oxygen and even radio waves. There, at the foot of a mountain, a life is lost in a rockslide. How could one death compare to the thousands in Seignora, and why is it so important that the World Council learn of the cause? Enter...
