In addition, the Commission found that advertisements for such products frequently failed to contain rating information. Finally, the Commission reported on the results of an undercover mystery shop by unaccompanied teens, aged 13-16, of retailers and movie theaters. The young shoppers were able to buy M-rated electronic games and parental advisory-labeled music recordings 85 of the time and purchase tickets for an R-rated movie almost half (46) of the time. C. Findings of the Commissions Follow-Up Reports in 2001 In response to Congressional requests, the FTC released two follow-up Reports in 2001. Both Reports examined the entertainment industrys practices with regard to 10 marketing violent entertainment products to children. The April 2001 Report concentrated primarily on advertising practices by the three industries on television, 11 in print media and on the Internet. For the December 2001 Report, the Commission staff contacted several companies within each of the three industries and requested...
