The author of Melody s Musings- now a retired nurse- invites you to share with her a collection of her unique memories and inspiring observations. Sometimes poetical, sometimes just plainly prosaic, Melody s words will move you to laughter or to tears in recognition of having experienced the same joys or fears. As you read some stories, you may think of changes in your life you regret not having made. Other stories, in poetical form, may expand your appreciation of how God has blessed you, of how much better your life is than it might have been. Overall, the depth of Melody s observations and her closeness to God s creatures and His creation will surely surprise and delight you.
