May 3rd Books, Inc., 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Last Princess of Saint-Domingue She is the King s principal wife, a Queen of the highest rank in the small African village. Hers is the admiration and respect from the villagers, especially from Mamma, the local shaman. Mamma sees trouble coming. She hears the whispers in the twilight. She notices the subtle change of the wind. The ancestors calls. They chant to her. Beckon her. Instruct her on what to do when the trouble comes. The Queen learns of the news from Mamma, but is un-phased by Mamma s warnings. Instead, the Queen chooses to focus on her growing womb. On that precious seed that is slowly forming and developing into the girl child that the Queen prays for. Mamma presses upon the Queen. Big trouble. It is coming. Soon. Trouble that will bring life and death. Trouble that will destroy and rebuild. Trouble that will take many years to heal. To the Queen s dismay, the trouble arrives in the form of French slave merchants. They burn. They kill. They steal. Mamma and the Queen suffer fatal destruction by...
