With these he mingles not but to command; Few are his words, but keen his eye and hand. Ne er seasons he with mirth their jovial mess, But they forgive his silence for success. Steer to that shore I - they sail. Do this! - tis done. Now form and follow me! - the spoil is won. Thus prompt his accents and his actions still, And all obey, and few inquire his will. Yet they repine not, so that Conrad guides; And who dare question aught that he decides? Still sways their souls with that commanding art That dazzles, leads, yet chills the vulgar heart. What is that spell that thus his lawless train Confess and envy, yet oppose in vain? What should it be that thus their faith can bind? The power of Thought, - the...
