The subject of apologetics is becoming an increasingly critical matter for Christians today. We live in a pluralistic society that values tolerance over truth and the acceptance of all options over sound doctrine. This book is designed to equip those who serve in our military to combat the growing heresies of false teaching. Every Christian is enlisted in active duty to fight the good fight for the Christian faith, while refuting those who contradict its claims. This book is aimed to help men and women who serve in our military combat the unseen forces in the invisible spiritual war against Satan and his lies. -Steven J Lawson, OnePassion Ministries Dallas, Texas Thanks to Sonny Hernandez for helping people to recognize the biblical and Reformed application of apologetics. Only Reformed theology, and its application to apologetics, can defend the faith according to the impossibility of the contrary. Since Christian truth encompasses all of life, it alone is able properly to interpret who we are, and what our world is like. Hernandez s piece equips and challenges, without compromise. It is well worth serious consideration. -K. Scott Oliphint, dean of faculty and professor of apologetics and systematic theology, Westminster Theological Seminary, Philadelphia, PA I am indebted to Capt. Hernandez for his excellent chapter on Biblical apologetics. It is one of the most succinct and concise expositions of Reformed apologetics I have ever read. I only wish it had been available almost fifty years ago, when I began to study Apologetics. I will put it in the hands of my students. Moreover, Capt. Hernandez s chapter is a superb introduction to this very important book. I am sure his primer on Biblical apologetics will...
