

Hearts of Gold: Stories of Courage, Dedication and Triumph from Canadian Olym.

By -

Condition: New. Ships From Canada. New. No dust jacket as issued. Trade paperback (US). Glued binding. 168 p. Audience: Young adult. Book Description Hearts of Gold profiles over 20 Canadian athletes who achieved an unusual personal triumph either in or out of Olympic competition. Each story describes a particular obstacle-physical adversity, political situation, technical challenge-and how the athlete found the courage to face it. Included are profiles of such legends as Jewish boxer Sammy Luftspring, whose 1936 protest of the Nazis took him out of Olympic competition; and Larry Lemieux, who gave up the chance of a yachting medal to rescue a capsized Singapore crew. Included are 60 color and black-and-white photos from 1906 to the present. About the Author Lorne Zeiler lives in Toronto where he writes frequently for the Globe and Mail Report on Business, and other publications.
