Excerpt from Family Allowances, Allotments, Compensation, and Insurance for the Military and Naval Forces of the United States Provided Under Act of Congress Approved October 6, 1917 Hon. Julian W. Mack. Hon. Julian W. Mack. Mr. Chairman and gentlemen. I think that it would be well for all of you to read through the bill. I assume that very few of you are lawyers, and it may seem to you highly technical. And yet you will have to read it through, and you will have to read it through a great many times, so you might just as well begin right now While you can t grasp it at a first reading, and probably won t grasp all of the details at a tenth reading - none of us have been able to do that - yet you must thoroughly acquaint yourselves with the words and the interpretation of the act, and with all of the bulletins that are going to be sent out by the bureau explanatory of the act, if you are to perform the duty for which you were called here. The essential purpose of this meeting is to acquaint some men from each cantonment as thoroughly as may be possible in a three days session, of course relying primarily upon their own efforts to acquaint them with the purpose and scope of this bill, not, however, for their own good, but that they may be torchbearers to their fellows in the various camps and cantonments. The bureau purposes, of course, sending out literature, but there is nothing like the human touch and the human word personally delivered to bring to men a message such as this, for...
