It shall not be lawful to burn any shavings or other combustible matter in any street, road, lane or private grounds in said city without the permission of the fire warden or the common council. Section 20. No lighted candle or lamp shall be used in any stable or other places or buildings where hay, straw or other combustible material shall be kept, unless the same shall be well secured in a lantern or other covering, nor shall a lighted cigar or pipe be carried in any such building. Section 21. No person, in removing any chips, shavings or combustible material, shall scatter or strew them in any street, or shall at any time permit, direct or suffer any chips, shavings or other combustible material to be taken or thrown or scattered on any street, road or alley within the fire limits of the City of Virginia. Section 22. Whenever in the opinion of the fire warden or common council of the City of Virginia the city is in immediate danger from fire, the fire warden or common council may make such orders and adopt such regulations as in their judgment they may deem best to prevent such fire and secure the safety of the city therefrom; and it shall be the duty of the fire warden and every member of the fire department to see that such orders are obeyed and such measures and regulations carried into effect. All persons who shall neglect to...
