M E Publishing, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Picking up after JIGSAW (2010,) book one in this series, in 2017 s new JIGSAW PART II, Capt. Cape Thomas has suffered a gunshot wound to the head, rendering him semi-comatose for over three years. On the eve of his discharge from the hospital after two more years of physical therapy, a night nurse--either a figment of his imagination or his worst living nightmare--attacks him out of nowhere. Convinced in daylight by staff and his doctor that the attack was a trick of a healing mind, Cape bids farewell to the facility, his home for the past five years. Once home with family in the Fisher mansion, strange things continue to beset him. Nooses and miniature coffins turn up in odd places and Cape begins to suspect that his old nemeses, Walter Cronus Kress and William Johnston, are responsible. These new terrors are real, but the cause for this unwanted, and ostensibly unwarranted, attention is still murky. Cape, determined to keep his family safe, moves from the mansion back to his own home. On the way there, he is hunted by an archer and almost killed. Managing to escape, he reports the crime to the local sheriff, a smart, charming woman whose looks could stop an eight-day clock. Sheriff Scarlett DuBois investigates Cape s claim of being targeted, but she soon dismisses the incident as a hunting accident blown out of proportion by a man with lingering brain damage. Cape returns to his home place only to find it s no safe haven, either. Nooses and other strange appearances send him out on the road again, this time to Charlotte, to warn his former lover, Ally Kress, that her imprisoned ex-husband, Walter...
