Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .FM 4-0 is the Army's keystone manual for sustainment. Its purpose is to provide authoritative doctrine for the sustainment of forces in full spectrum operations. It expands on sustainment doctrine introduced in FM 3-0 to incorporate a broader approach to sustaining the fighting force. The intent of this FM is to describe how sustainment builds and maintains combat power, supports strategic and operational reach, and enables endurance. This FM establishes how sustainment operations are integrated and synchronized into the overall operations process - plan, prepare, execute, and assess. In accordance with FM 3-0, the terms combat arms, combat support (CS), and combat service support (CSS) are no longer used as Army doctrine lexicon. The term sustainment covers many of the functions, tasks, and organizations formerly described under CSS although there are some differences which will be discussed in this FM. Sustainment includes the major sub-functions logistics, personnel services, and health services support. Sustainment as defined and discussed in this FM is compatible with the joint function, sustainment. FM 4-0 has five chapters and two appendices. It addresses the operational environment and modular force sustainment organizations. It introduces the roles and functions of the generating and operating forces. It explains the art of battle command from a sustainment commander's perspective. Finally, it explains sustainment as one of six warfighting functions (WFF) and presents doctrine for how sustainment is planned, prepared, executed, and continuously assessed. - Chapter 1 is the introduction to sustainment. It covers the principles of sustainment and the sustainment WFF. - Chapter 2 covers the roles and responsibilities of organizations providing sustainment in support of unified action. It links Army sustainment to joint sustainment operations. It covers commands, organizations,...
