Capstone. Paperback. Condition: New. 168 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 5.9in. x 0.6in. I've been lucky enough to earn my living doing what I love. Bear Hunt offers a route for others to do the same. Sir Bobby Charlton. Malcolm McClean's work is an inspiration, simple, effective and clear. For anyone who has ever wanted to change their work and their life, this book will get you on track. Malcolm McClean has original thinker written on his face. If he says something, believe him, it works. Kate Marlow, Presenter, Channel Four's Reality Check. I shudder to think what might have been had my post-graduate applications to the Post Office or the Inland Revenue been successful. I am doubly blessed that my career, being amply paid for doing what I love, wasn't really intended. How refreshing that Malcolm McClean offers a more structured path towards such rewards. Alan Green, Football Commentator, BBC 5 Live. Wouldn't it be great to never have to work again? That's what it's like when you're doing something you love - it isn't work, it's fun. Bear Hunt is about turning that dream into reality. Eight simple yet startling insights provide the formula that can lead you towards your goal, starting with helping you to discover what it is that motivates and stimulates you. Bear Hunt is your path to discovering a life you'll love. Just like the family in the children's story, Were Going On A Bearhunt, when you are searching for something big, beautiful and frightening you will come up against many obstacles. To achieve a life that you can love you have to stop tinkering around at the edges and have the courage to smash through them. Bear Hunt is about creating the spirit, knowledge, skills, creativity and desire to overcome all barriers to happiness and fulfilment...
